

PRESS RELEASE

08 JANUARY 2007

IT'S A GREAT DEBUT: we are thrilled to announce the publication of Stephanie Anderson's chapbook In the Particular Particular, winner of the 2006 NMP/DIAGRAM chapbook contest.

THESE POEMS SMOKE when sprayed with water: that is how hot they are. (Technically that's evaporation, but it looks a lot like smoke.) They are each like evaporations, evocations, interactions with the world via verb and adjective and noun. They are gloriously in love with language, and we believe you will love them in return. 48pp, $8. A sample excerpt appears at right. The chapbook is available now by mail, at excellent independent booksellers, or from the NMP storefront (credit cards accepted) at: <newmichiganpress.com/nmp>.

STEPHANIE ANDERSON's poetry has appeared or is forthcoming in American Letters & Commentary, Boston Review, Denver Quarterly, DIAGRAM, LIT, Painted Bride Quarterly, and Typo. She lives and works in New York City.

We would like to invite you to order a copy. $8 + $1 (s&h) gets you yours. Or test-drive her work in DIAGRAM available online at: <<http://thediagram.com>>.

MISS DORA, HOW ARE THESE FOR APPLES?

Send me back to common school.
My cup is near-brim; from the tucks

I hear you petticoated ones throwing fits. I can't preserve and never bleach.

Even worse: watts or volts, gulch or gully.
Every year the breach waxes. It's no temperate thing, this taking. Old eagle eyes, teach me mending. Tell me writhing.

It's my turn for callus. Tussle and muster me to ore—my knuckles too glib and my speech too fainted—facing lady, specter, plain list of blue squash, task and drive.
